| 1789 |  | The men were warriors.                                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 1790 |  | Most of the trees are palm trees.                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |  |
| 1791 |  | We are not going to Aunt Basia's birthday party today.                                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 1792 |  | The exhibition was too bare and too boring.                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |  |
| 1793 |  | Did you catch him redhanded?                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 1794 |  | Over six hundred means nothing at all.                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 1795 |  | There was a 7 year gap between those involved in the situation.                                                                                                                                  |  |  |  |
| 1796 |  | I also did.                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |  |
| 1797 |  | On cool days, I wear a flannel shirt to the office.                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |
| 1798 |  | I've never heard anyone talk the way you do.                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 1799 |  | We hold no ill will towards them.                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |  |
| 1800 |  | The clinton women were in their 20's                                                                                                                                                             |  |  |  |
| 1801 |  | It's shortsighted to think that Clinton's approval rating is a sign of the nation's immorality.                                                                                                  |  |  |  |
| 1802 |  | The Indigenous Project is run by the Oregon Law Center.                                                                                                                                          |  |  |  |
| 1803 |  | Stark was happy that San'doro was dying.                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 1804 |  | The interior of the church, while still lovely, is much plainer.                                                                                                                                 |  |  |  |
| 1805 |  | Nobody liked Judge Bailey.                                                                                                                                                                       |  |  |  |
| 1806 |  | I gave up on working for the camp due to the long working hours.                                                                                                                                 |  |  |  |
| 1807 |  | The original verdict of the jury was the death penalty.                                                                                                                                          |  |  |  |
| 1808 |  | Gerth won prizes even though he didn't mention a CIA report.                                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 1809 |  | Sir James thinks it's totally reasonable.                                                                                                                                                        |  |  |  |
| 1810 |  | McGrath claims that everything in the memorial was accurate.                                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 1811 |  | I am paid well, even if it's here and the same.                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |  |
| 1812 |  | It is not acceptable for anybody to refuse work in order to take care of children.                                                                                                               |  |  |  |
| 1813 |  | The Republican National Committee Chairman freelanced on the topic of abortion when asked about it on CNN instead of reiterating the party-line.                                                 |  |  |  |
| 1814 |  | The cathedral is equally as impressive during the light of day.                                                                                                                                  |  |  |  |
| 1815 |  | The narrator knows what to do with them.                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 1816 |  | Louis XIV was against centralization.                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |  |
| 1817 |  | The men wanted to hit on the beautiful blonde at the bar.                                                                                                                                        |  |  |  |
| 1818 |  | I am upset that I can not understand it.                                                                                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 1819 |  | On his 85 Birthday, Strom Thurmond announced he will be running for president.                                                                                                                   |  |  |  |
| 1820 |  | The Emperor Theodosius, in 392, proclaimed Christianity to be the official religion of the Roman Empire.                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 1821 |  | The restaurant is based off a classic Castilian style.                                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 1822 |  | They were both enjoying a good conversation as they sat with each other at breakfast.                                                                                                            |  |  |  |
| 1823 |  | Across the street from the churchyard there is a forrest, with little view of anything other than trees.                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 1824 |  | We all know that the reason for a lesser percentage of possible deliveries on rural routes being businesses, is because of the fact that people prefer living in cities rather than rural areas. |  |  |  |
| 1825 |  | Beaune is the best place to buy from for beginners.                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |

| 7849 |  | Look at the lawnmower industry for example.                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 7850 |  | What are we going to have for supper?                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 7851 |  | It is impossible to prepare a report on this topic.                                                                                                                                             |  |  |  |
| 7852 |  | The Kal then nodded its head up and down to signal that it wanted to fight.                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 7853 |  | Clinton said he was completely innocent and instructed them to stop talking about it.                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 7854 |  | Leading organizations want to be sure their processes are successful, which can be obvious for most of the people here.                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 7855 |  | The woman had never spoken before.                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |
| 7856 |  | Poverty lawyers might make $32,000 per year starting out.                                                                                                                                      |  |  |  |
| 7857 |  | There is rumor that the money in circulation will double in a decade.                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 7858 |  | That doesn't at all sound like something I would enjoy.                                                                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 7859 |  | They said that the current system doesn't reflect                                                                                                                                               |  |  |  |
| 7860 |  | I saw him get on the train.                                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |  |
| 7861 |  | Consultants most often have personality clashes at the center of conflict.                                                                                                                      |  |  |  |
| 7862 |  | I guess it wasn't in the box office for a long period of time due to poor sales, but I still thought it was great.                                                                              |  |  |  |
| 7863 |  | Russia has been successfully invaded hundreds of times.                                                                                                                                         |  |  |  |
| 7864 |  | The logic for the case studies is different from other types.                                                                                                                                   |  |  |  |
| 7865 |  | It says a bigger percentage of the content of communication can be expected.                                                                                                                    |  |  |  |
| 7866 |  | The guide is a good book for tourists.                                                                                                                                                          |  |  |  |
| 7867 |  | Mud and rocks were swept 200 miles down the river.                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |
| 7868 |  | All studies have an unknown quality but the best imagined ones have less than others.                                                                                                           |  |  |  |
| 7869 |  | When prophecy is indicative of a thing happening, it will occur -- there is a cycle of confirmation to it.                                                                                      |  |  |  |
| 7870 |  | Bill Clinton is working to eventually close this divide.                                                                                                                                        |  |  |  |
| 7871 |  | Not all auctions sell high priced goods.                                                                                                                                                        |  |  |  |
| 7872 |  | Sheffield, Cambridge and Manchester are all in Boston.                                                                                                                                          |  |  |  |
| 7873 |  | Many Lakeland hotels also quote an affordable dinner, bed, and breakfast rate, but there is not a shortage of affordable dinner restaurants in the area if one chooses not to eat at the hotel. |  |  |  |
| 7874 |  | Tripp is not qualified for the offer she received.                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |
| 7875 |  | The iron gate did not move at all.                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |
| 7876 |  | Palestrina will be performed in New York by the Royal Opera.                                                                                                                                    |  |  |  |
| 7877 |  | There are no examples of case studies, so it is a new territory.                                                                                                                                |  |  |  |
| 7878 |  | I must lead two lives; one in perfectly amiable company with the president, and one whispering in the ears of his enemies as his back was turned.                                               |  |  |  |
| 7879 |  | It had started five years ago.                                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |  |
| 7880 |  | He was trying to take a nap.                                                                                                                                                                    |  |  |  |
| 7881 |  | She was, as a result, revered by her subjects as a living deity.                                                                                                                                |  |  |  |
| 7882 |  | Downtown Dallas was a short drive from where I lived in Wylie.                                                                                                                                  |  |  |  |
| 7883 |  | Her eyes glittered as she promised him that she would.                                                                                                                                          |  |  |  |
| 7884 |  | Mrs. Vandemeyer took an appropriate does of chloral.                                                                                                                                            |  |  |  |
